BUCKS COUNTY CELEBRITIES

By Grace Chandler

Well-known Bucks County newspaperwoman, writer, and editor of "The American Scepticist"

A compilation of many interesting facts about those who are well-known on stage and screen, and in the literary and artistic fields of today, who are making their homes in Bucks County.

LEIGH MITCHELL HODGES — Newspaper Columnist

Perhaps it is something in the altitude of his native city, mile-high Denver, Colo., that gives Leigh Mitchell Hodges, known to thousands of readers of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin as the "Optimist," his ability to look the darkest thunder cloud in the eye and defy it to last forever.

A long-time resident of Doylestown, Mr. Hodges got his first chance to be cheerful despite the odds on the Mexico (Mo.) Evening Ledger. That was a tough training school in the old tradition where you learned to be a good newspaperman, or suddenly found yourself looking for a job in a less exacting calling—such as "pearl-diving" in a sinkful of dirty dishes in a side street beanery.

Surviving that rigorous apprenticeship with his happy philosophy intact, he roved on to larger fields.
It was while he was on the Kansas City Star that he met the famous Edward Bok, editor of the Ladies' Home Journal. That was in 1899 and the meeting led to an assistant editorship on the magazine and a career that comes close to being a legend in Philadelphia journalism.

"He became a columnist on a reverse play. A feature called the Cynic, appearing in the old Philadelphia Times and written by Horace Traubel, biographer of Walt Whitman, impressed him as being overly pessimistic. The squire-ey viewpoint was all very well, he thought, but what was wrong with wearing rose-colored glasses now and then? The world might be going to the how-wows in a basket on wheels but the ride was interesting —and often downright fun.

"I figured that if Mr. Traubel could pound the anvil, I could ring the bell," he told an interviewer many years later. On March 13, 1902, the Optimist began cheerfully ludging the Cynic on the same page of the Times, and has continued in one Philadelphia newspaper or another ever since. Nearly 7500 Optimist columns have been written to date, an inspiration to many persons who found the road of life a rocky one.

To Mr. Hodges goes a large slice of the credit for making the Chris-mas Seal the familiar feature of the holiday season it is today. He did not conceive the idea, and he did not design the first seal. His contribution was the priceless one of imagination. He saw what few others could see back in 1907: an opportunity to take the scourge of centuries—tuberculosis—and cut it down to a size where it could be manhandled and subdued.

The spark that ignited the fuse leaped haphazardly across continent and ocean, zig-zagging from one alert mind to another. The discovery of the cause of tuberculosis

DOYLESTOWN IS TO BUY PARKING METERS

To Be Installed on Trial Basis; Service Through
Parking Lot

G. I.'S SEEKING WATER

DOYLESTOWN, May 22 — Final action to purchase parking meters for installation on six months trial basis, has been taken by Doylestown borough council. Council accepted the police committee's recommendation that the type of meter with counter attached be purchased. Cost of these meters is $65 each.

Other important business transacted included action to start proceedings at once for the purchase of a centrally-located parking lot by condemnation proceedings—the lot in the rear of the Doylestown Armory.

On motion by Councilman Frank D. Good and seconded by Councilman George R. Smith, the bids for sewer extension in the East End that were received last month, were rejected, council members being unanimously of the opinion that the bids were excessive and that the necessary money is not available at this time.

Third and final reading of the ordinance authorizing the widening of Main street between Oakland avenue and Monument Square, was passed and work will get under way shortly.

Before the meeting visitors at Council included J. J. Rodgers, production manager of MacEwan & Smith, Inc., of Doylestown, rubber goods manufacturer. Mr. Rodgers assured Council that everything possible is being done to eliminate any smoke nuisance from the company's mill. Mr. Rodgers said that Prepare Check in Lieu Of Lacey Park Taxes

A check in the sum of $59,017.45 as payment in lieu of taxes on the Lacey Park war housing projects will be mailed shortly to four taxing bodies in this community, according to word just received by John J. Carroll, housing manager, from John A. Kervick, regional director of the Federal Public Housing Administration.

Payments include $8,856.11 to Bucks county, $984.01 to Bucks County Institutional District, $11-784.82 to Warminster township and $37,392.51 to School District of War-minster township.

Mr. Kervick pointed out that payments in lieu of taxes approximate taxes which would be paid upon such projects if they were not legally exempt from taxation. However, he explained that the law permits appropriate allowances for expenditures made by the Federal Government for streets, utilities or other public services for such projects.

FATHERS' ASS'N FETES ATHLETES AT DINNER

Seven Guests Speak Briefly; John Cole, Devon Smith, and Coaches Included

OFFICERS ARE CHOSEN

The Bristol Fathers' Association held the annual dinner for the high school varsity athletes last evening.
It was, in fact, a double celebration, considering that Bristol carried off high scores at the Lower Bucks County track meet held yesterday.

The invocation was given by the Rev. W. C. Carroll, Harriman Methodist Church.

Following the turkey dinner, which was served by members of the Mothers' Association, seven guests spoke. Each speech was brief and to the point.

J. Paul Nuse spoke of the "Band Fund." President Arthur Phipps presented to Mr. Nuse for the fund the sum of $116 which was donated by different firms to the association for this purpose. Mr. Nuse disclosed that to date about $400 has been raised.

Coach McClister gave an outline of the track meet. In speaking about football, McClister disclosed the following interesting facts: "We are going to have Bensalem back on the schedule next season. Also, 'movies' will be taken of all the football games next season. Then, when the team meets each Monday, the pictures can be shown the players and good points and faults of the plays pointed out."

Coaches Watson and Fetterman made a few remarks.

John Cole, formerly of St. Joseph's College and the Philadelphia Eagles, spoke upon "Using Your Head."
"50% of all games are won off the field, in the locker rooms. Quick thinking pays off in games. The amount of practice you have had will determine the way you will act under pressure. Practice, plus experience, plus application, makes perfect."

Cole spoke at great length about first baseman Chase, who died a few

CONTRACTOR FROM YARDLEY IS FINED $200, ALSO COSTS

Frank F. Gilbert, 41, Has Long Record of Arrests, It Is Testified

WARNING FROM COURT

Some Other Drunken Driving Cases Heard In Bucks County

DOYLESTOWN, May 22—A Yardley contractor after pleading guilty to a charge of drunken driving in Bucks County courts, here, Monday, was sentenced by Judge Hiram H.
Keller to pay a fine of $200 and costs of prosecution. The one sentenced is Frank F. Gilbert, 41, who had in 1934 pleaded guilty to a similar offense in New Jersey. A six months prison sentence was suspended on condition that the fine and costs be paid for.

The case was investigated by Trooper Liebergal, of Langhorne substation. Liebergal testified that the defendant was arrested ten times for various motor violations in 1933 and 1934. These arrests ranged from overtime, no lights, no registration and other infractions of the motor code.

He pleaded guilty to drunken driving in New Jersey in 1934 and paid a fine.

President Judge Keller also stipulated in his sentence that the Yardley defendant make no application for restoration of an operator's license. He was driving without a Pennsylvania operator's license at the time of his arrest.

"When I was younger I was involved so many times with the law that I thought I'd better not drive," Gilbert testified.

"I haven't driven a car in ten years, but a friend of mine and I started out and I had to drive because he drank a little too much," Gilbert said.

"You have had so much difficulty with the operation of automobiles that you had better never try to drive another," Judge Keller warned the defendant.

Trooper Liebergal testified that Gilbert was pronounced unfit to operate a car.

Charles H. Hill, 59, of Plainfield, N. H., who pleaded guilty to drunken driving on May 14, when his car swerved in a head-on collision with Andrew C. Denver, of Telford, was sentenced by Judge Keller to pay a fine of $200 and the cost of prosecution and reimburse the Telford motorist for his damages, including hospital and medical expenses.

A prison sentence of six months was suspended on condition that the defendant pay the fine, costs and damages.

Andrew C. Denver, Telford, who appeared in court with his right hand still in a bandage, said it was badly cut and that he also suffered other injuries. His car, which he said he was offered $190 for several

May Streetwide Sale Is Opened by Merchants Here

Mill Street merchants, in co-operation with the Mill Street Business Men's Association, opened their streetwide sale today. The sale is for three days, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. "Values and prices are offered that will astound every shopper. Hundreds of outstanding values are being offered by the merchants," said a member of the association today.

In an announcement a spokesman said:

"The Mill street business men pledge to co-operate with President Truman in every way to bring costs of living down.

"Our committee has carefully planned a campaign that has brought to Bristol the lowest prices ever seen, not in a slipshod, fly-by-night plan, but a campaign to definitely cut your cost of living down to a minimum.

"In addition to the streetwide sale of advertised specials, hundreds more are offered by the merchants, at prices that will astound every shopper."

The sale opening today is perhaps the largest ever planned co-opera-tively by the merchants.

Probe Steel "Grey Market"

Washington—A Chicago steel broker was called to testify before a Senate subcommittee today on a report that gangsters, allegedly involved in a "grey market" on steel, tried to move in on his dealings in sheet steel.

The Small Business subcommittee announced that L. C. Durham, of Chicago, would be the opening witness on evidence of grey market operations uncovered by Senate investigators.

Sen. Martin, R., Pa., chairman of the group, declared that prohibition day whiskey bootlegging was a "small fry" proposition compared to what he termed the gigantic "grey market" in steel.

Martin's committee is checking up on reports that small business steel consumers, unable to obtain sheets through normal channels, have been offered the product by a "mysterious character" at prices of up to $249 a ton. It normally costs $80.

Say Events Reflected As "In Crooked Mirror"

Moscow — Izvestia charged today that British Foreign Secretary Bevin's report to Commons last Thursday presented all events as reflected "in a crooked mirror."

The commentary, occupying two-thirds of a page, was captioned—"Report does not correspond to reality."

The newspaper, organ of the Soviet Government, said Bevin's speech could not justifiably be titled a report, "since any report pre-supposes an exact story of the facts."

Izvestia charged Bevin with making "undisguised attempts" to revise the Potsdam decisions and presenting in wrong and one-sided fashion the enlightening work of the conference.

Detroit—The Ford Motor Company conceded today that the strike of 3800 foremen in three Detroit plants probably will choke off vehicle production nationally within a week. The strike began at 10 a. m. yesterday.

by the young German doctor, Robert Koch, had met with public indifference. A Copenhagen postal clerk, Ennar Holboll, conceived the idea of a Christmas stamp as a means of raising money to publicize the treatment and cure now possible. One of these stickers reached Jacob A. Riis, whom Theodore Roosevelt called "America's most useful citizen." Impressed by this method of promoting public health education in his native Denmark, Riis wrote an article about it.

This was recalled by Miss Emily P. Bissell, of Wilmington, when she was faced with the problem of raising $300 in a hurry to prevent the closing of an open-air shack for tuberculosis patients near her home.
Backed by a tiny sum of borrowed money and the faith of a printer who was willing to be paid on the if-and-when basis, Miss Bissell started the first Christmas Seal campaign in this country. But $300 was an enormous sum when counted by pennies, so she turned her eyes hopefully to the then powerful newspaper, the North American. A sub-editor was horrified at the very thought of coupling Merry Christmas with a dread disease.

Her spirits considerably dashed by this pessimist, Miss Bissell decided that while she was in the building she'd step into the office of a favorite columnist. Under the circumstances, she needed to see what an optimist looked like. Mr. Hodges, more than lived up to his label. The force of his enthusiasm infected his editor, E. A. Van Valkenburg, and swept the North American into the greatest crusade of its history.

Each sheet of the 1916 Christmas Seals carried miniature portraits of the four individuals who first showed faith in the little messenger's power to do good—Riis, Van Valkenburg, Miss Bissell, and Leigh Mitchell Hodges.

His penchant for looking on the bright side of things—without burying his head in the sand ostrich-fashion and seeing nothing—is reflected in all his writings. These have appeared in many publications, including the New York Times Sunday Magazine, the Reader's Digest, and the New Yorker.

To be an optimist day in and day out, privately as well as publicly, for 45 years, while the old world rocks with the diabolical schemes man thinks up against himself, is a feat St. Peter must be recording with astonishment—and delight.

HOMAGE TO THE DEAD
Four bereaved American families out of five, the War Department reports, would like their war dead brought home from the 209 foreign countries where 300,000 of them now lie. The government is deferring with sympathetic respect to the profound feelings of these families, but it obviously is of the opinion that the move is not wise.

It is indeed probable that the graves in American military cemeteries will receive better care than those of casualties reinterred at home. One does not have to travel far to see private cemeteries which eventually were permitted to run down. But cemeteries for which the Federal government takes responsibility are kept up perpetually.

Wherever Americans who fell in the war are buried abroad, the United States will establish permanent cemeteries, build memorial chapels and erect headstones to replace the temporary crosses which now mark the graves. The men will lie with their comrades at arms, in a resting place designed especially to honor them.

President Truman now proposes a trip abroad for the families, at government expense, to visit the graves. If this suggestion is adopted families will be able to see for themselves how well their loved ones are cared for, and they will have an opportunity to visit the graves. That will meet two of the main objections to allowing those who died in service to rest where they are.

UNREQUITTED LOVE
It is no exaggeration to say that Americans today are the world's most complacent people.
It will therefore come as a shock to most Americans to learn that the British as shown by public opinion polls, are becoming increasingly friendly to the Soviet Union and hostile to the United States.

There is no reason to believe that this shift in public thinking has gone far enough to move Britain over to Russia's side in the international chess game now being played. But Americans may ask themselves this question: If many people in England now see more hope in Russia than in the United States, what of the people of the European mainland, nearly all of whom are getting far less to eat than the British are?

The cry is going up in this country that if Washington's foreign policy is to succeed, this trend must be reversed—by opening the doors of the U. S. Treasury still wider. It is a forlorn hope. England has received billions during and since the war.
More billions have been scattered from hell to breakfast throughout all of Europe. In many instances food has been sent to Europe to replace stores stolen by the Russians.

If, in spite of all this, Europeans lean toward Russia, which has done nothing for any country except stir up trouble, the distribution of additional billions by Uncle Sam will have little effect except to weaken the United States.

The company has installed a Bureau of Mines Smoke Chert and that in no time in several months has the chimney of the plant showed smoke in excess of what the ordinance allows.

The free-parking lot-for-patrons of Doylestown business came up for action. It was announced that the parking lot will cost $11,000, an additional lot on Main street belonging to Wynne James, Jr., will cost $2,500 and a lot belonging to Dr. Harry Ritter will cost $600 making the entire project cost $14,100 for the lot without improvements.

The committee reported that in spite of the petition against it, they believed that Doylestown will best be served by purchasing the lot, and so ordered. Councilman Good said that he thought the improvement to the parking lot would probably cost an additional $10,000 or $12,000.

Solicitor Bunting advised Council that probably the best procedure would be to secure the lot by condemnation and to have the necessary jury of view appointed and fix the damages. On motion by Hayman, seconded by Ruffe, the ordinance to secure the lot by condemnation was taken up for first reading, provided that it is approved by Burgess Butler.

Colonel George VanOrden and his attorney, Isaac J. Vanartsdalen, representing the Veterans' Land Improvement Company, developers of the Doylestown VFW-owned real estate tract in Buckingham township opposite the borough line on Swamp road, appeared before Council asking for water. Colonel VanOrden informed Council that the Veterans' Land Improvement Company is about ready to purchase 13,900 feet of water pipe and that he would like to know whether the borough will furnish them water.

Councilman George Willard, chairman of the water committee, said that he was certain that the development project could be assured that water will be furnished by the borough. On motion by Councilman Good, seconded by Councilman Elden Clemens, it was directed that an agreement be drawn up by Borough Solicitor Wesley Bunting and Attorney Vanartsdalen, in which water prices, and other details will be set forth.

Colonel VanOrden intimated that an application will be made in the near future to have the site annexed to Doylestown borough.

sions, however, when that field is being used for baseball games which interferes with the cadets as well as the baseball players.

Torchon Cadets have been using the yard of the Wood street school but some objection has been raised by a group of residents in the vicinity who claim that the practicing is annoying.

The Recreation Board of the Borough offered the use of the field to both cadet groups and it has been accepted.

days ago. "He had what is known as a 'trigger brain,'" Cole told of different players who had "used their heads." Concluding, he said, "Mental preparation can be secured, but it takes time, patience and determination. If you have these three, then go to work."

Devon Smith, of the personnel department of Fleetwings, told of some of his experiences as a basketball referee. He spoke about good winners and good losers. The point made by Mr. Smith was—"After you are out of school get a new interest to take the place of your athletic activities, a 'hobby' perhaps. If you do not you will go stale."

Mr. Smith introduced Matthew Gonkas of the Philadelphia Warriors basketball team. Gonkas told about basketball and the co-operation needed to win games. "Many players take second place and 'feed' to a special player to make the scores. This player gets the glory but he could not do what he does if it was not for the players who take second place."

President Arthur Phillips presided at a brief business meeting. The following officers were elected for the school year of 1947-48: President, William White; vice-president, Horace Jeffries; treasurer, Walter Cooper; financial secretary, Joseph Buck; executive committee, Arthur Phillips, Paul Simpson, Fred Townsend, Arthur Hinkley, Frank Conca.

months ago, was worth $35 as junk now. He is the father of four children, employed in a Lansdale diner as a short order cook and was in the Elm Terrace Hospital several days.

Hill, who was en route from his New Hampshire home to Daytona, Fla., where he has a job as a carpenter, testified he took several drinks, a whiskey and beer in Lambertville, N. J. Somewhere along Route 202 he became confused and got on Route 309 between Unionville and Line Lexington, where the crash happened.

It was raining hard and he was driving on the right hand side of the road. The Telford motorist saw the defendant's car coming toward him, attempted to swerve to the left, but it was too late. The New England motorist was insured and said complete restoration will be made.

Amsey C. Mead pleaded guilty to driving while drunk in Doylestown on the afternoon of March 28. The case was before Judge Boyer. The defendant was arrested by Patrolman Veryl Hoyt.

Mead, general superintendent of one of the largest bus transportation lines in the county, told the Court he had taken four drinks of whiskey at a party given in his honor the day of his arrest—by his employees. Mead was married the following day.

Judge Boyer suspended sentence on condition that Mead pay the costs and $100 to the County of Bucks and that he be placed on probation for one year.

Couple Wed Here Are Spending Week in N. Y.

A Spring wedding took place at four o'clock, Saturday afternoon, in St. Mark's R. C. Church, when Miss Elizabeth Marie Harkins, Bath street, daughter of Mrs. John F. Brady, became the bride of Mr. Joseph L. Genco, son of Mr. Joseph Genco, Sr., Buckley street.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Peter J. Harkins, wore a gown of white French nylon, with trim of ivory lace. The wide skirt was trimmed with a ruffle of self-material, edged with baby lace, as was the sweeping train which fell from a modified bustle. Her tulle veil bordered with heirloom lace was attached to a headpiece of pearl orange blossoms. She carried bridal roses, and lilacs of the valley.

Miss Margaret Harkins, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Miss Katharine McKnight was bridesmaid. The costumes of the attendants were blue and white. Both gowns were fashioned of white faille taffeta. They wore picture hats of white horsehair trimmed with a single strand of forget-me-nots, and a large blue satin bow with waist-length streamers. Their bouquets were of white roses. Elbow-length lace mitts completed the costumes.

The Rev. E. Paul Baird officiated at the double ring ceremony. Mrs. John Arena, soloist, was accompanied by Miss Katherine Keating, organist.

The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. J. Genco, and the ushers were Mr. James E. Lake and Mr. Daniel Harkins, uncle and brother of the bride, respectively.

Mr. and Mrs. Genco are spending a week in New York, N. Y.

HULMEVILLE, May 22—At the final meeting of Hulmeville-Middleton Parent-Teacher Association for the term, held last evening in the school house, officers were elected, and two instructive motion picture films enjoyed.

Named as president of the association is Mrs. Nicholas Grudza, she succeeding Ned Moyer, Sr. Others chosen are: Vice-president, Mrs. Ernest Maret; secretary, Miss Margaret Perry; treasurer, N. P. Larson; corresponding secretary, Frank Binder.

The association voted to donate $10 to the Salvation Army, and to give excess canned foods from the cafeteria supply to the Bucks County Home, Doylestown.

Howard Johnson, of the maintenance committee, reported progress on plans for laying a concrete walk between the two doors of the school house. The school board will cooperate with the P. T. A. in this project, he informed.

Announcement was made that the two radios purchased by the P. T. A. for use in the school, have arrived and are in use.

Plans for serving refreshments to girls and boys parading on Memorial Day were made. The attendance prize was won for the third grade last evening.

The two motion picture films, shown through courtesy of Robin & Haas Co., Bristol, through arrangements by treasurer of the P. T. A., N. P. Larson, were partly in color and partly in black and white. The one, "Our Constant Enemy—the Insect," showed how the battle against insects is being fought on three "fronts"—the home, the agricultural and the industrial fronts. The second film was "Looking Ahead Through Robin & Haas Plexiglas," Method of manufacture and processing, and the wide variety of uses of plexiglas were depicted. The projector was operated by Principal Frank Binder.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Ernest Maret.

No scores were kept but unofficially Bristol was the winner with 83 points. Other points scored were: Morrisville, 40½; Newtown, 25½; Langhorne, 25; Bensalem, 14; and Fallsington, 5.

The surprise of the meet was the showing of "Sags" Sagolla's Newtown High team which scored 25½ points to come in third place. The Newtown runners copied three first places in the meet.

Two records were broken. "Bob" Morris, Newtown, broke the broad jump record with a leap of 20 feet, 1½ inches, and the runner of the 110 yard low hurdles by Bradley, also of Newtown, in 13.5, established a new mark.

Nick Schmidt, of Bristol, missed the record by seven seconds in the 440 yard dash, while "Bill" Foltz, of the "Bunnies," missed the record by seven inches in the discus throw. Foltz was a double winner, copying the shot put and discus, and placed second in the javelin throw. Bradley, of Newtown, also won two events.

The winners: 110 Yd. Low Hurdles: 1st, Bradley, Newtown; 2nd, Sottile, Bristol; 3rd, Mama, Bristol; 4th, Caucei, Bristol; 5th, Johnson, Morrisville. Time: 13.5 (new record).

Boilermakers Defeat Hibernians By the Score of 12 to 8

"HIBCOES" GET 10 HITS

Clifton and Hauser Make Three Hits Out of Four Times Up

Badenhausen scored all its runs in two innings last evening as it won its fourth straight game, beating the Hibernians, 12-8, in a slug-fest on the township field.

The boiler-makers had 17 hits while the Hibcoes had 10. Both teams used two pitchers with "Johnny" Langdon and Paul Leighton doing the chores for the Baddies and "Tommy" Kervick and "Tommy" Burns doing the work for the Hibernians.

Leaders of the winners with the stick were "Kenny" Clifton and "Walt" Hauser with three out of four each. Steinbrum, Breslin, and Snyder had two hits each for the losers.

Leighton, who relieved Langdon in the first inning was the winning pitcher with the defeat going to Kervick.

The first six runs scored by the Badenhausen team were the result of singles by Balazs, Ashton, Leighton, and Praul, doubles by Bonds and Hibbs, and a triple by Hauser. The second sextet of markers were made on singles by Hibbs, Hauser, Balazs, Ashton, and doubles from the bats of Clifton and Bonds.

FUR WORKERS PULL SURPRISE AND WIN OVER ROHM & HAAS

Chemical Mixers Lose Game To Processing Workers By Score of 7 to 5

BRAGG HITS 2-BAGGER

Miller Was The Winning Hurler and Gave Up Seven Hits

The Rohm & Haas team met its first defeat of the season last evening as it dropped a close 7-5 decision to the Fur Workers Union on Leedom's field.

Matt Bragg's two-bagger with Zuczek and Kelly on base in the sixth frame gave the fur processors the triumph. It was Bragg's only hit of the tilt and after the two runners scored the game was called because of darkness.

Glenn Miller was the winning hurler, he going the distance for the Fur Workers and giving up seven hits. Dave Ludwig had two hits in three trips to the plate for Rohm & Haas, while Oliver Ringold and Stan Zuczek had the same thing for the Fur Workers.

THE CAPITOL WHIRL

A Digest of Things Political Occurring At Harrisburg

By International News Service
HARRISBURG, May 22—(INS)—Sen. Henry I. Wilson (R) Jefferson, is the only member of the present General Assembly who served in Pennsylvania's Legislature prior to the turn of the century. . . . Wilson, a tall, gray-haired resident of Big Run, served in the House of Representatives during the sessions of 1899-1900, 1911-12, 1915-16, and from the special session of 1926 to 1940 when he was elected to the Senate. . . . He was re-elected three years ago. He frequently calls his colleagues to task for dilatory tactics. . . . The 79-year-old lawmaker was born near Wellsboro. . . . He is a lawyer and a musician. . . . During the session of 1907-08, Wilson was the Senate journal clerk. . . . He is the oldest member of the upper chamber.

Wilson first served in the General Assembly during the period when the present State Capitol was being constructed. . . . The old Capitol building, which was completed in 1821 after six years work, was destroyed by fire at noon February 2, 1897. . . . The present structure was dedicated by the late President Theodore Roosevelt in October, 1906. . . . While the building was being constructed, legislative sessions were held in the Grace Methodist Church in mid-town Harrisburg.

The 1945 edition of the Pennsylvania Manual contains several sections listing Pennsylvania's contributions to the winning of World War II. . . . The articles were written by State Historian Sylvester K.

Stevens and his assistant, Marvin W. Schlegel. . . . Background sketches of Pennsylvania men who won the Congressional Medal of Honor during the second world conflict are included in the Manual along with lists of generals and admirals.

Rep. Samuel B. Dennison (R) Jefferson, is a short man who good naturedly takes kiddings from his colleagues about his height. . . . Sometimes when Dennison arises to address the House his friends ask him to "stand up" or yell "are you standing in a hole?" . . . One day Dennison moved to send one of his bills back to committee and at the end of his motion said the purpose was "for possible study." . . . When bills are returned to committees, the usual procedure for the assemblymen making the motion is to move that it be sent back "for further study and possible amendments." . . . Much good-natured kidding goes on at the sessions and legislators rarely take offense to remarks of their colleagues. . . . House minority leader Hiram G. Andrews, during interrogations, usually tells majority leader Herbert P. Sorg, an Elk County attorney, not to pose "any lawyer's questions."

RARER WILD FLOWERS SHOULD BE PROTECTED

Variety of Such Flowers Is One of Pennsylvania's Greatest Charms

RESPECT HERITAGE

(Prepared for The Bristol Courier by the State Planning Board of the Department of Commerce.)

Among Pennsylvania's greatest charms for out-of-state travelers and for our own people are the variety of wild flowers which have always bloomed along our roadsides and in our fields and forests.

When William Penn first saw his vast province, he wrote back to London: "The woods are adorned with lovely flowers, for color, greatness, figure and variety. I have seen the gardens of London best stored with that sort of beauty, but think they may be improved by our woods."

The mountain laurel, Pennsylvania's state flower, attracts thousands to our rocky hillsides in the spring, and even in this early season, the violet, the spring beauty, the blood root, and the blooming cherries and crab are convincing us that spring has really arrived.

There is a natural impulse to gather wild flowers, and many of our common ones like the violet, milkweed, daisy, and black-eyed susan are not injured by careful picking. But there are other Pennsylvania wild flowers, now being threatened with extinction, by the thousands of sight-seers who drive along our rural highways. Some of these flowers once flourished here in great profusion, and are now growing very rare. The trailing arbutus, the yellow, pink, and showy lady slippers, and the trillium are all injured or destroyed by picking, and can be transplanted only by experts. They should be enjoyed where they grow and allowed to spread again. There are many other wild flowers such as the fringed gentian prized for their beauty and rarity which will soon be seen no longer in our fields or woods unless protected by public sentiment.

While an act of the legislature makes it unlawful to remove or injure trees or shrubs in state forests, the preservation of the natural beauties of our state including its wide variety of wild flowers will only be possible, if those of us who visit the outdoors respect our heritage and realize that the natural

"SMOOTH" PRES- ENT!—that's what the boy or girl will say who is lucky enough to receive one of the new "Westfield" bikes, now being shown in the Snellenburg Sporting Goods Dept. They certainly are beauties. The new "Westfields" come in regulation size, 28 inches. They have balloon tires, safe modern brakes, torpedo lights, kick stands, and are chrome finished. $41.75. (3d fl.)

SUPER SUMMER RUGS. The Snellenburg Rug Dept. has a grand selection of finest quality India Ruggets, in both traditional abstract and floral designs. They are so durable, being closely woven. Prices and sizes are as follows: 12 x 15 feet, $124.00; 10 x 14 $96.50; 9 x 15 $89.95; 9 x 12 $69.95; 8 x 10 $54.95; 6 x 12 $49.95; 6 x 9 $36.95; 4 x 7 $18.95; 3 x 6 $11.95; 27 x 54 inches $6.95. Colorful India Ruggets always add character to a room. It's a delight to have them on the market again. (4th fl.)

HOLIDAY LUGGAGE. How grand it is to again see attractive luggage at low prices. The Snellenburg Luggage Dept. has two matching cases at the lowest price in five years! Both smart cases are covered with woven canvas and are bound in genuine leather. They're light to lift, trim of line, and of practical proportions. They are well lined, have lots of pockets, strong handles and dependable locks. The 21-inch week-end case is priced at $5.95 plus 20% tax, though regularly $8.95 plus tax. The 26-inch pullman case is priced at $8.95 plus 20% tax, though regularly $11.95 plus tax. I'm getting mine—better get yours! (1st fl.)

SUMMER FUN. There's no summer and fall fun that surpasses eating in the open. Every garden the size of a postage stamp should have an outdoor charcoal-burning grill, and every car should have a folding one. Sometimes they can be one and the same. The Snellenburg Summer Furniture shop has many kinds at many prices. A little $2.75 portable folding one, that can also be used in an indoor fireplace, is grand for weenies, hamburgers, etc. A larger one at $14.98 even has a spit for barbecue roasting! Others are priced to $69.95. Why not a grill for the older children, for guests, or for the whole family? (4th fl.)

NICE! Double-mesh hairnets of real hair, in cap shape, are again to be had. You'll find them in Snellenburg's always well stocked Notions Dept. Shades are black, blond, and brown in light, medium, and dark-brown shades. Only $1 per dozen. Let me call your attention, too, to the new summer barrettes and fancy combs displayed in the same department. Very good at low prices. They come trimmed in gold and silver finish metals, and there are some with simulated pearls. Prices range from 59c to 95c. Some articles require the 20% tax. (1st fl.)

WHITE HANDBAGS. The Snellenburg Handbag Dept. has a grand array of washable white handbags in both carry and shoulder-strap designs. These are in the new and versatile plastics. Some look like heavy calfskin, others like fine patent leather, and still others are tufted or quilted, while some are actually embroidered in colorful designs. Though tagged at $2.95, plus 20% tax, they appear to be quite twice the price! Grand for Memorial Day week-ending. Be sure, too, to see the stunning little white plastic or plastic tortoise vanity "carry-alls" at $1.75, plus 20% tax, in the same department. These latter make intriguing gifts. (1st fl.)

GARDEN ROMANCE. Nothing adds more glamorous interest to a garden large or small than an old-fashioned "gazing ball." I used to think that these balls were made of highly-polished metal, and I was amazed to find that they are real mirrors! They reflect the whole garden on all sides, and shine brightly rain or shine. The Snellenburg Garden Dept. has them in three sizes. That 12-inch diameter costs $7.50; 14-inch diameter $12; 16-inch diameter $15. Very classic, pale concrete or white cement pedestals for the globes come at $3.30, $4.59, $7.98. A gazing ball makes a thrilling birthday gift for a gardener! (1st fl.)

16 RIBS! That means sturdy umbrellas. I couldn't believe my critical shopping eyes when I saw the $3.95 numbers in the Snellenburg Umbrella Dept. These are bargains indeed. They come in all colors, including plaids, stripes, florals. Guaranteed rain-proof. There's a fascinating variety of novelty handles. Nice for yourselves; nice for gifting. (1st floor.)

P.S. Do send clippings with mail orders when you can! Phone free (5c, 10c, and 15c out-of-town calls only). Penna.—ENT. 10160; Jersey—WX-1150. Shop located Market, 11th to 12th Sts., Phila.—through to 1125-29 Chestnut St. Be hearin' from you! Faithfully, FAITH.

Strawberry is America's Favorite Jam

If all the berries in the world were gathered together for a glamour-berly contest — strawberries would win! Yes, rich, red strawberries have a winning appeal that makes them America's favorite for jam. And it's no wonder — strawberry jam has a flavor and texture yet to be equalled in any other berry. But remember — strawberries, beautiful as they are, are particularly low in natural pectin content. And pectin, as you know, is the substance present in fruit that makes jellies jell and jams jam. But please don't hesitate to make strawberry jam on this account.

Homemakers remember, the addition of a natural fruit pectin, either powdered or bottled, insures a successful jam every time. It supplies the right amount of pectin in just the exact proportion to make up for the deficiency in the ripe fruit and, it safeguards the characteristically rich flavor of the berries. Yes, all the delicious flavor of the glamour berry is locked in every sealed jar ready for a taste treat on morning toast and all through the day.

STRAWBERRY JAM

4 cups prepared fruit
7 cups sugar
1/2 bottle fruit pectin

To prepare the fruit. Crush thoroughly about 2 quarts fully ripe strawberries. Measure 4 cups into a large saucepan.

To make the jam. Add sugar to fruit in saucepan and mix well. Place over high heat, bring to a full rolling boil, and boil hard 1 minute, stirring constantly. Remove from heat and stir in bottled fruit pectin. Then stir and skim by turns for 5 minutes to cool slightly, to prevent floating fruit. Pour quickly into glasses. Paraffin at once. Makes about 10 six ounce glasses.

STRAWBERRY JELLY

5 cups juice
7 cups sugar
2 boxes powdered fruit pectin

To prepare the juice. Crush thoroughly about 3-1/2 quarts fully ripe strawberries. Place in jelly cloth or bag and squeeze out juice. Measure 5 cups into a very large saucepan. To make the jelly. Measure sugar and set aside. Place saucepan holding juice over high heat. Add powdered fruit pectin and stir until mixture comes to a hard boil. At once stir in sugar. Bring to a full rolling boil and boil hard 1/2 minute, stirring constantly. Remove from heat, skim, pour quickly into glasses. Paraffin at once. Makes about 12 six-ounce glasses.

PENNSYLVANIA FARM ROUNDUP

By Suzanne Flick
(L. N. S. Penna. Farm Editor)
HARRISBURG, May 22—(INS)—The State Agriculture Department has intensified its battle against diseases of livestock and plants and against crop-damaging insects.

Officials claimed a major victory over pullorum disease of poultry, highly contagious infection, after reducing the incidence rate in two weeks to approximately one out of 10 birds in a flock.

The chief weapon was education; farmers have learned the need for maintaining sanitary conditions in poultry houses, according to Secretary Miles Horst. Blood tests were used to detect infections.

Only 12 per cent of 1,012,930 birds tested last year were found diseased, he said.

Clean records were marked up for 353 of the 1256 flocks examined, Horst asserted.

The biggest campaign in history to destroy gypsy moths was under way with 90,000 acres of forest land in Lackawanna and Luzerne counties slated to be sprayed with DDT. Sixty-five tons of the insecticide will be used to kill gypsy caterpillars before July, the Department announced. Much of the spraying will be done from airplanes, it added.

Similar measures were urged against the European corn borer which destroyed more than $2,710,000 worth of crops in the state last year.

Southeastern counties suffered the greatest ruin from the hardy two-generation borers which reproduce rapidly during May and June, according to a survey conducted by the Bureau of Plant Industry.

Pennsylvania milk production totaled 480,000,000 pounds during April, a five per cent increase above the March yield.

The monthly output during May was expected to reach a half billion pounds despite poor pasture conditions.

The April yield was only 10,000,000 pounds short of the peak figure for that month established in 1945, according to the Agriculture Department. Continued high production was attributed to increased herds and larger outputs per cow.

The high cost of feed coupled with decreased milk prices was expected to keep the total 1947 production below the 1946 level.

Farmers expected to harvest one of the best wheat crops in years. A 20,416,000 bushel crop was anticipated compared with last year's yield of 19,912,000 bushels, according to the Department. The average crop during the 10-year period ending in 1945 approximated 18,406,000 bushels, it was reported.

Yields per acre were expected to average 22 bushels, a half bushel decline from 1946, but a two-bushel gain over the 10-year period. Approximately 928,000 acres were planted with wheat last fall compared with 885,000 during the previous season.

Egg production picked up during April when hens produced 313,000,000 eggs.

Five per cent fewer hens populated farms than a year ago, but an increased production rate per bird kept the output at only seven per cent below the record April yield last year, according to a Federal-State report.

ALWAYS WHITE...ALWAYS BRIGHT... no more clinging dirt or grime

DU PONT HOUSE PAINT

CLEANS ITSELF!

Your house keeps its freshly painted look when finished with Du Pont House Paint. Dirt and grime can't become embedded—rains just wash them away!

SELF-CLEANING Du Pont House Paint is so formulated that, as time goes by, a microscopically fine white powder forms on the surface. Heavy rains wash the powder away, taking dust and dirt with it, and leaving the surface clean and white again. Excessive accumulations of dirt (particularly in sooty industrial communities or in heavily shaded locations) may delay or interfere with this process. Because this "self-cleaning" is gradual, the wearing qualities of the paint film are not abnormally affected.

SELF-CLEANING Du Pont House Paint is as durable as it is beautiful... protects against rust, rot, and decay... gives lasting beauty and protection. Costs no more than ordinary paints—saves repainting bills! Call on a reliable painter for your painting jobs, and ask him to use Du Pont House Paint!

RECIPES

Glamorous Dessert

Nut covered cubes of tasty "Almond Novelty Pudding" in tall rimmed glasses will make a mighty glamorous way to finish off a dinner. Top them generously with soft custard, or to be extra gay, with lightly tinted pink whipped cream.

Almond Novelty Pudding

6 shredded wheat biscuits 1/2 half cups cooked prunes 1 half cup honey 1 half teaspoon salt 1/4 teaspoon ground cloves 1 tablespoon rum or rum flavoring 1/2 cup chopped roasted blanched almonds

Soft custard or thin corn-starch custard Crumble shredded wheat biscuits, measure prunes, remove pits and measure prunes. Add honey, salt, spice and flavoring to prunes, and beat; add shredded wheat and stir until blended. Sprinkle half the almonds over bottom of a buttered 8 (8 and one-half x 5 1/2 x 1 ins.) and prune mixture and press down firmly; sprinkle remaining almonds over top and press nuts into pudding with spatula. Chill thoroughly, mold and cut into small cubes with a sharp knife. Serve in stemmed glasses with a generous amount desired sauce. Serves 6 to 8.

Tasty Cheese Soup

(Serves 6)

Two tablespoons minced onion, 4 tablespoons butter, 1/2 cups milk, 2 cups chicken stock or bouillon, 1/2 pound sharp American cheese, 1/2 cup minced cooked carrot, 3/4 cup minced cooked celery, chopped parsley.

FIRST SPEEDBOAT RACES FOR EAST SCHEDULED SUNDAY

Event at Eddington Aquadrome Was Postponed From Last Sunday

COMPETITION IS KEEN

Times Clock in Tests Last Sunday Better Than Time Trial Records

The first outboard speedboat races scheduled anywhere in the East, which were cancelled last Sunday due to rain, will be raced Sunday at the Aquadrome, Eddington, 14-mile water speedway. The cancellation was necessitated by rain through northern New Jersey, New York and the New England states which prevented many entrants from arriving at the Aquadrome in time for time trials to be conducted.

The one week delay is expected to materially improve the competition as many race drivers have taken advantage of the additional week's time to make final adjustments to their racing equipment.

Spectators who ignored the drizzle and threat of storm to be on hand at the Aquadrome last Sunday saw many of the drivers testing. Gil Peterman, Bronx, N. Y., who arrived with two brand new Class 1 outfits, was clocked at 45.2 seconds, and Joe Stager, Flushing, N. Y., who will handle Peterman's second entry, was clocked at 46 seconds flat. Both of these times, although unofficial, were better than the course time trial record of 46.1 established last season by Bill Guldin, Coatesville, Pa. Other drivers who tried out new equipment were Jack Schiedel, Oreland, Pa.; Johnny Morlan, Bound Brook, N. J.; Dutch Soliday, Middlesex, N. J.; Byron Shannon, Audubon, N. J.; and Henry Shakeshaft, White Plains, N. Y.

In all, more than twenty drivers appeared last week, but the entire field of more than thirty drivers entered in the Spring Championships will be on hand for the event this Sunday. Time trials are scheduled for noon with the first of six heats to start at 2:30.
